第__次練習(詞彙題) __/__Name:_____

第一部分:文意選填(20 題, 4 篇短文, 每篇 5 格)

請從各篇文章下方的單字框選出最適當的單字, 填入文章中的空格(每字限用一次, 不需變化字形)。

題組一:Storm Warning

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| (A) menace | (B) shutter | (C) surge | (D) trample | (E) wither |

Long before the storm actually arrived, forecasters were already describing it as a serious (1) _____ to the coastal towns. All afternoon, Mrs. Lin went around her house fastening every loose (2) _____ she could find. That night, a sudden (3) _____ of seawater broke through the harbor wall and swept into the streets, and a frightened horse escaped its stable to (4) _____ what was left of her vegetable garden. By the next morning, the crops that had survived the flooding had already begun to (5) _____ in the salty mud left behind.

題組二:The Difficult Negotiation

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| (A) penetrate | (B) suppress | (C) supreme | (D) tangle | (E) yield |

During the peace talks, reporters outside could not (1) _____ the thick security around the building to learn what was actually being discussed. Inside, years of mutual distrust had left the two nations' positions in a hopeless (2) _____ that no single meeting could undo. Officials on both sides tried to (3) _____ their frustration in front of the cameras, but neither side was willing to (4) _____ an inch on the disputed border. In the end, everyone understood that only the two countries' (5) _____ leaders could break the deadlock.

題組三:Campus Election

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| (A) magnify | (B) preach | (C) prolong | (D) tentative | (E) vigorous |

When the election season began, one candidate ran a (1) _____ campaign, visiting every classroom to introduce herself personally and constantly urging classmates to (2) _____ kindness rather than competition. Her main rival, by contrast, seemed strangely (3) _____ about the whole process, as if unwilling to fully commit. During the final debate, this rival made a small factual mistake, and social media quickly began to (4) _____ the error until it seemed far worse than it really was. Constant online gossip only helped to (5) _____ the controversy for days afterward.

題組四:The Lost City

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| (A) lodge | (B) relic | (C) slaughter | (D) suspend | (E) widespread |

The newly excavated temple offered visitors from around the world a rare glimpse into a lost civilization. Deep within its walls, archaeologists discovered a single bronze (1) _____ that had somehow survived untouched for centuries. Nearby carvings told a darker story: an entire village had once been destroyed in a brutal (2) _____ during a war between rival kingdoms. News of the gruesome discovery quickly became (3) _____, and out of respect for the site, the local government decided to (4) _____ all public tours until further studies could be completed. In the meantime, the research team chose to (5) _____ in a small village nearby so they could continue their work without a long daily commute.

第二部分：單字選擇題（30 題）

請依句意，從 (A)(B)(C)(D) 四個選項中選出最適當的單字。

1. Doctors explained that the disease's most dangerous symptoms often do not _____ until the infection has already spread throughout the body.
   (A) diminish (B) manifest (C) resolve (D) subside
2. Historians note that the ancient city was ruled under _____ law for nearly two decades after the coup, with soldiers patrolling every street corner.
   (A) martial (B) civil (C) neutral (D) passive
3. Before the debate, the coach spent an hour helping the students _____ their arguments into a clear, logical sequence.
   (A) scatter (B) abandon (C) marshal (D) postpone
4. Embarrassed by the question, the boy could only _____ a vague answer, and the teacher had to ask him to repeat himself twice.
   (A) declare (B) announce (C) recite (D) mumble
5. Many people cling to the romantic _____ that hard work alone guarantees success, ignoring the role that luck and timing often play.
   (A) notion (B) verdict (C) statute (D) testimony
6. Instead of the usual round dining table, they chose an _____ one that could seat ten guests along its long sides.
   (A) circular (B) spherical (C) oblong (D) symmetrical
7. Given that she had never even attempted the exam before, the _____ of her passing on the first try seemed slim.
   (A) odor (B) outcome (C) odds (D) income
8. Determined to _____ his older brother's championship record, Leo trained for six hours every single day of the summer.
   (A) undergo (B) overlook (C) undertake (D) outdo

9. While waiting outside the office, she happened to _____ her boss discussing layoffs, though she was never meant to know about them.

(A) overlook (B) oversee (C) overturn (D) overhear

10. The sailors ignored every warning sign, sailing the small boat directly into _____ as the storm clouds darkened overhead.

(A) parcel (B) peril (C) pier (D) petal

11. Without proper refrigeration, the delicate flowers began to _____ within just a few hours of the summer heat.

(A) flourish (B) multiply (C) blossom (D) perish

12. Even after being rejected by twelve publishers, the young author chose to _____, eventually finding a company willing to print her novel.

(A) retreat (B) conform (C) persist (D) surrender

13. During the ceremony, every new member had to make a formal _____ to protect the club's reputation and follow its code of conduct.

(A) rumor (B) pledge (C) grudge (D) glimpse

14. Without a moment's hesitation, the firefighter chose to _____ into the icy river to rescue the drowning child.

(A) glance (B) wander (C) plunge (D) retreat

15. The documentary captured the exact moment the eagle spotted its _____ hiding in the tall grass below.

(A) prayer (B) preacher (C) prey (D) pray

16. With three job offers already on the table, her career _____ looked more promising than they had in years.

(A) products (B) proceeds (C) prospects (D) protests

17. Deciding how to punish the offender is properly the _____ of the judge, not the journalists covering the trial.

(A) providence (B) province (C) provision (D) proverb

18. His lifelong _____ for the truth about his birth parents eventually led him to a small village overseas.

(A) request (B) conquest (C) quest (D) query

19. Although he was a brilliant physicist, he admitted that questions about human emotion lay far outside his _____ of expertise.

(A) ream (B) realty (C) reality (D) realm

20. The scientist published a detailed paper to _____ the popular but false claim that the vaccine caused the illness.

(A) repute (B) refuse (C) refund (D) refute

21. The entire village gathered to _____ when the long drought finally ended with three days of steady rain.

(A) rebel (B) resign (C) recoil (D) rejoice

22. Although she tried to hide it, she clearly _____ being passed over for the promotion she had worked so hard to earn.

(A) respected (B) resembled (C) resolved (D) resented

23. When negotiations completely broke down, the company had no choice but to _____ to legal action against its former partner.

(A) result (B) respond (C) resist (D) resort

24."I never asked for your opinion," she _____ sharply, clearly annoyed by his constant criticism.

(A) retreated (B) retained (C) retired (D) retorted

25. The corruption within the palace grew so severe that the starving peasants finally chose to ____ _____ against their king.

(A) resolve (B) revive (C) reveal (D) revolt

26. Unlike his predecessor, the new headmaster enforced such _____ rules that students were punished even for being one minute late.

(A) flexible (B) casual (C) tentative (D) rigid

27. Despite being over eighty years old, her grandfather remained remarkably _____, still chopping his own firewood every winter morning.

(A) fragile (B) feeble (C) frail (D) robust

28. The critics greeted his first novel with open _____, calling it amateurish and poorly researched.

(A) praise (B) admiration (C) enthusiasm (D) scorn

29. After months of interviews, she finally managed to _____ the position she had always dreamed of at the design firm.

(A) release (B) abandon (C) postpone (D) secure

30. Public _____ toward the new tax policy shifted quickly once people realized how much it would actually cost them.

(A) sediment (B) settlement (C) segment (D) sentiment